Are you prepared?

As a direct result of the times, 2020 will be the biggest year yet for ecommerce gifting. For many, going out to the shops and hand-delivering their gifts will no longer be an option. As a result, customers will be making use of the gifting options available online.

GIFT MESSAGING BUILT IN

When an order is placed, the gift message is automatically printed inside the SMARTslip, alongside the transactional information and marketing content.

SAVE TIME AND REPUTATION

The process of manually typing and printing out gift messaging is time consuming and prone to human error. SMARTslip automates the process. In technicolour!

ON BRAND & PERSONALISED

With SMARTslip, your gift messaging will be on brand and of the highest standard. We even have handwriting options to make it extra special.
